OFFICE OF NATIVE AFFAIRS AND POLICY RELEASES 2012 ANNUAL REPORT

CG Docket No. 11-41

On March 20, 2013, the Office of Native Affairs and Policy presented its 2012 Annual Report to the Commission. The report illustrates the Commission's efforts to address the digital divide in Indian Country, the progress that the Commission has made working on a government-to-government basis with Tribal Nations, and why that progress requires even more coordinated efforts in the years to come.

The report is available in the FCC's Reference Information Center, Courtyard Level, 445 12th Street, SW, Washington, DC. Copies may be purchased by contacting Best Copy and Printing, Inc., 445 12th Street, SW, Room CY-B402, Washington, DC 20554, telephone (800) 378-3160, or via their website at <http://www.bcpweb.com>.

In addition, the report can be downloaded directly from the Office of Native Affairs and Policy's website at <http://www.fcc.gov/topic/native-nations/> and through the Commission's Electronic Document Management System (EDOCS) at http://hraunfoss.fcc.gov/edocs_public/ by searching the above captioned docket.

Each Commissioner issued a statement on the 2012 Annual Report. These statements are available online:
